In claim 4 line 2, "for" has been replaced with --in combination with--.

In claim 5 line 1, "for" has been replaced with --in combination with the--.

The above amendments have been entered to cancel claim 2 which modified, rather than further restricted, parent claim 4 by reciting that the wall portion is continuous whereas parent claim 4 specifically recites that the wall portion has at least one notch. The amendments to claims 4 and 5 have been entered to clarify the scope of the claims as the preamble of claim 4 only set forth an elastic-cup support but the body of the claim recited details of the keyboard. The preambles have been amended to be consistent with the body of the claims.
